Biography

GREG NEJMEH was with the Jets for 16 years in various personnel roles. Most recently, he was the Co-Director of Player Personnel after spending five seasons as the pro personnel director. He had previously served as coordinator of pro scouting (2018), pro scout (2014-17) and a pro personnel assistant (2011-13) after initially joining the organization as a scouting intern in 2009.
In his most recent role, Nejmeh oversaw the day-to-day operation of the pro personnel department and the oversight of the free agency process and all pro player evaluations, including potential signings from all other pro leagues. Additionally,
Nejmeh added the responsibility of assisting and overseeing the college scouting process and evaluations.
In-season, Nejmeh would manage all potential free agent signings, monitoring daily league transactions and NFL practice squads for potential waiver claims, signings or workouts. He also oversees free agency evaluations and cross-checks by both himself and his staff for the upcoming league year.
Working closely with the coaching staff, Nejmeh and the pro personnel staff scout upcoming opponents, preparing and presenting the weekly advance report.
Nejmeh also assisted the football administration department on transaction negotiations as well as leads the communication from pro personnel to all other necessary departments in the organization.
Nejmeh was selected for participation in the Stanford League of Leaders program and the Career Development Program at the 2024 NFL Combine.
A graduate of The College of New Jersey where he studied political science, Nejmeh played quarterback at TCNJ prior to becoming a student quarterback coach during his junior and senior year. He was inducted into Midland Park High School's Hall of Fame in 2016 after a three-year career playing quarterback that saw him set every school passing record.

Now serving as President at Accelerate Sports Ventures, Nejmeh leads the firm’s football advisory vertical, applying NFL-level evaluation principles to the college game to support roster construction, transfer portal strategy, and player valuation.

His approach is rooted in objective, film-based analysis and structured decision-making, designed to support — not replace — existing staff while helping programs operate with greater clarity, speed, and confidence.

Football Evaluation & Advisory
Accelerate Sports Ventures provides college football programs with objective player evaluation, roster analysis, and market-based valuation. Built on nearly two decades of NFL front office experience, his approach delivers clear, actionable insight that helps staffs make faster, more confident decisions by adding clarity and efficiency to their process without increasing internal workload. This work is supported by the data, infrastructure, and resources of Accelerate Sports Ventures.

All evaluations and discussions are conducted independently and communicated confidentially to program leadership. All work is customized to fit each program's structure and decision-making process.
Additional school-specific services can be discussed and provided as needed.
Core Services

Roster Audit
Objective film review, thorough evaluation, and grading of the current roster to determine contextual player value using NFL evaluation principles. Provides immediate clarity on roster strengths and gaps for retention and portal planning.

Transfer Portal Evaluations & Market Analysis
Comprehensive approach to the transfer portal, including systematic, pro-style evaluations and market analysis. Focused film review with grades tied to accurate market valuation of potential targets, customized to fit each program's system, culture, and needs.
Additional Partnerships & Development Initiatives

In addition to working with college football programs, Accelerate Sports Ventures is actively involved in broader player development and evaluation initiatives across the football ecosystem.

This includes select partnerships and collaborations focused on development, player training environments, and evaluation at the high school and youth levels. These efforts are designed to support long-term player and program development, provide earlier insight into emerging talent, and create alignment between development and evaluation.

All partnerships are approached with the same core principles — objective evaluation, structured development, and alignment with the evolving landscape of football at every level.

Nejmeh and his wife Melissa have three children, daughter Kenzie, and sons Mack and Tate.

Statement

Most importantly, I am a husband and father to 3 beautiful children. Professionally, I have 16 years of experience in the NFL, all with the New York Jets. Most recently as Director of Player Personnel.

Currently , I am the President of Accelerate Sports Ventures helping bring clarity to college football programs through objective, pro level evaluations and processes that are meant to support the staff and an additive manner.

Achievement

Stanford League of Leaders Program
Was selected as the New York Jets sole participant in the Stanford Grad School Business

League of Leaders Program where 1 member of each NFL team is selected to attend.

Part of teams that have acquired 10 All-Pro selections and 35 Pro Bowl Selections.
Part of a scouting staff during my time at the Jets that helped acquire high level players.

Most Claimed players in NFL
Director of a Pro Personnel Department that had 32 players claimed from 2019-2024, tied for most in the NFL. Highlighting the depth of the roster.

Led a Pro Scouting Department that claimed 2 players who had been cut by other teams that went on to be All-Pro selections.
WR/RET Braxton Berrios and LB Quincy Williams were cut by other teams and the Jets were the only team to claim them at that time. Both went on to be selected to Al-Pro for the Jets.

PRINCIPLES

• I believe in communication, collaboration, transparency and connection amongst all members of the program as we work towards a common goal.

ATHLETIC CAREER

Quarterback — Midland Park High School, Catholic University, The College of New Jersey
| Football | 2000 - 2007

I started as a Sophomore at Midland Park High School at QB and still own all of the school's passing records. I was inducted into the MPHS Athletics Hall of Fame, named to the Suburban News All decade team as well as being an All-State and All-County player my senior season.

I started as a freshman at Catholic University but my season was cut short due to injury. I transferred after my freshman year to the College of New Jersey where I was the backup QB for 2 seasons before transitioning to being an undergraduate assistant coach where I was responsible for coaching the QBs.
