Biography

Co-Defensive Coordinator at Sacramento State with over two decades of collegiate coaching experience. Dedicated to developing disciplined athletes and elite defensive units through culture, accountability, and leadership.

Statement

Football is my platform to build men of character, discipline, and resilience. I believe great coaching starts with connection — teaching the game with detail, purpose, and trust. As a Co-Defensive Coordinator at Sacramento State, I strive to create a culture where players play fast, communicate with confidence, and compete!
My approach blends an educator's mindset with a relentless standard for toughness and accountability. The goal is to develop leaders who succeed on the field and in life!
